SEE SAN FRANCISCO . . . Its hills and curvy streets provide a charm and flavor that is likened to many cities of the Old World. Reduced to cinder several times since she was born, she gallantly fought back each time to rise and become a greater city than before. Art Museums, Opera and Ballet Companies lend a cultural atmosphere that is difficult to match. There are 3,500 restaurants throughout the city and many of them will take a back seat to no other. It is repeatedly stated that there are more elements of sheer beauty to be seen without cost than in any other American city.

If you are just visiting, park your car and tour the easy comfortable and convenient way. Let the Municipal Railway act as your chauffeur. This historic city is served adequately by a transportation system designed to accommodate residents and tourists alike. Buses, streetcars and cable cars will take you to almost every tourist attraction in San Francisco.

DOWN TO THE SEA BY CABLE . . .

Up and over Russian Hill comes a green and white cloud-hopper on the Municipal Railway's No. 60-Powell-Hyde cable car line which terminates at Aquatic Park. Alcatraz Island, until recently a Federal penitentiary, provides a focal point for visitors viewing the attractions of the Bay. The S.F. Maritime Museum, at Aquatic Park, is a treasure trove of sea relics and early San Francisco history. A great variety of ship models are housed in the Museum from the famed HMS Bounty to modern, super-speed cargo liners. The second floor is dedicated to photographs and documents of the Bay area.

QUAINT SHOPS . . .

and distinctive restaurants in a gay and colorful atmosphere characterize Ghirardelli Square where visitors can browse among the treasures of the world along with a view of the Bay against a backdrop of weathered brick and sparkling fountains. The No. 19-Polk and the No. 30-Stockton lines offer direct service. The No. 60-Powell-Hyde cable car and the No. 47-Potrero coach stop one block away.

SPRINGTIME BEAUTY . . .

in Golden Gate Park's Japanese Tea Garden. Off South Drive, adjacent to the de Young Museum, it can be reached by the No. 10-Monterey coach line. A tea house and gift shop are located in this superb example of a Japanese garden and the fragile blossoms of 200 cherry trees are at their peak blooming the first week in April. Open daily from 8:00 a.m. to dusk.

OLD VICTORIANS . . .

have been artfully refurbished and converted into handsome shopping compounds along outer Union Street in the City's Cow Hollow district. Once the Barbary Coast's dairy land, the Union Street neighborhood is now a flourishing shopping and dining center with a turn of the century flavor and is served by the Muni's No. 41-Union line which travels directly through the area.

THE CITY'S MAGIC SKYLINE . . .

is a delight for motorists driving on the Bay Bridge. After dark, from offshore, the City's glowing horizon is a sparkling necklace reflected in the deep blue of the Bay. Telegraph Hill, topped by Coit Tower and framed by the lacy network of the Bay Bridge, looms above The Embarcadero. The No. 30-Stockton (not marked EXPRESS) and the No. 15-Third-Kearny coaches will take you there.
